"Great performance. As solid as I've ever heard... really drawing the actual sound out of the guitar so it achieves both goals brilliantly - demonstrating the guitar and demonstrating your abilities. Great job!" - David Collett, President of Guitar Salon International

"Taso is an extraordinary artist. I have recorded dozens of guitarists over the years, and Taso's technical mastery and musical sensitivity make him a joy to work with. His charisma and passion for music is obvious in every single note that he plays."

"In an increasingly generic guitar world, Taso Comanescu emerges as one who stands out by virtue of his disciplined technique and a certain artistic nobility that goes beyond quantifiable descriptions. It is the sudden change of colors, the slight bending of the rhythm, the inventive phrasing that, when put together, make me feel grateful for having listened to Taso play once more."

- Tavi Jinariu, guitar virtuoso

"As a classical guitar maker, what I appreciate most about Taso is his dedication to the craft and genuine enthusiasm for the guitar. Taso has a warm, gracious personality and it is reflected in his music. I'm reminded why I love and build the guitar when listening to him play. His attention to detail, colorful interpretations, understanding of the music and willingness to explore new ideas is art in the making."

Richard Reynoso, Luthier

"Recently, the Classical Concert Series in celebration of the 10th Season presented Taso Comanescu. His program was varied and performed with outstanding musicianship and in addition he communicated with his audience. Taso was very well received and he would be re-engaged without hesitation. We wish him continued success in his career."

"...I felt aware of the stillness of the audience. All eyes and ears were riveted on the young classical guitarist Taso Comanescu. His fervor and devotion were immediately clear for each musical phrase of his stunning performance from Francisco Tarrega's soulful Lagrima to Isaac Albeniz's Asturian, classical piece Leyenda. He was magical."
